Enticing an assortment of clients, the Deluxe Olympian Room is beyond that of a typical deluxe room as it is more of a suite measuring up to 50m², and epitomises contemporary sophistication, complemented beautifully by floor-to-ceiling windows and dark hardwood floors and equipped with luxury amenities fitting of such accommodations. The Deluxe Olympian Room allows guests to experience luxury accommodations in Hong Kong, where space is an absolute premium.

Furthermore, the Grand Harbour View Room is truly a luxury reserved for the privileged few. Measuring up to 66m², its 11 Grand Harbour View Rooms are hailed for their breath-taking views of Victoria Harbour, and distinctive character that combines state-of-the-art facilities to pamper visitors throughout their stay. With guests relishing in the comfort of their room, while indulging in the panoramic views of surrounding landscapes and Hong Kong's Victoria Harbour.

The Olympian Suite is a paradigm of prestige and bespoke comfort, each of the eight Olympian Suites provides 75m² of contemporary sophistication, the ultimate destination for celebrations and special occasions. Impeccably swathed in hardwood flooring and contemporary furnishings, the rooms offer a kitchen and enough generous living space to craft a private residence akin to a luxury apartment in Manhattan.

Amenities

Guaranteeing visitors' first impression is memorable, a private lounge welcomes guests first thing in the morning with breakfast that is made-to-order along with afternoon tea where canapés and non-alcoholic beverages are served. The lounge is a retreat for guests after a long day. Dietary requirements will also be met according to guest request. A 24-hour fitness centre complete with state-of-the-art equipment where guests can unwind and rejuvenate in addition to a self-service launderette, which allows guests the convenience and privacy of handling their own garments—a rare amenity in Hong Kong and perfectly suited for extended stays. Of course, hotel laundry and cleaning service upon request are also offered. The Olympian Hong Kong is equipped with all the amenities a guest may need whether they stay for leisure or business.

The hotel's design embraces that of a contemporary residence, as the decor and amenities have been carefully thought out to create an ambiance for the luxury-seeking traveller. Masculine hardwood floors, plush velvet furnishings, objets d'art and floral displays complement the warm colour palette used in the design. More sophistication can be seen in the Asian-inspired touches. Great care has been taken to revitalise a Chinese element at The Olympian Hong Kong. Chinese lantern lighting designs pay homage to the Chinese culture. The clever touches, peony-inspired artwork, artistic representations of "double happiness", and historical images of the neighbourhood which, adorn the halls marks the Chinese element paired with Western design which makes The Olympian uniquely Hong Kong. As guests walk the halls, the oriental touch allows a sense of domesticity and warmth not often found in a hotel of such repute.

Service

Making sure guests are truly satisfied with their stay, and ensuring that they will want to return, The Olympian Hong Kong stands apart from other hotels offering luxury services because they do so in an intimate, boutique setting. Guests need only to walk down the corridor to speak face to face to the guest service team. Due to this level of intimate guest service, the team is made up of a team full of the right magnetism and spirit above all qualifications.

Ultimately, at The Olympian Hong Kong, as a member of Sino Hotels, the strategy and execution of the practice are guided by the many key core values of the group. The core insight implemented is the value of Quality Excellence. The team truly believes in its product but aside from this, goes the extra mile to deliver the best possible service. What makes the team unique is demonstrated in another one of its core values, which is continuous improvement. Always looking to improve, the team constantly finds new ways to enhance the guest experience. The team believes in the product but management also believes the team to be the best to deliver the ultimate service.
